If you do not prefer the use of cookies, you can delete or block cookies from your browser's settings or from the detailed cookie removal explanation below. However, we would like to remind you that this may affect the use of our website. Unless you change your cookie settings in your browser, we will assume that you accept the use of cookies on our website. You can access the regulations regarding the collected data from the Clarification Text on our website.

Our cookies are used to provide you with a personalized experience while using our website, to improve our services and to improve your experience.

Cookies can be evaluated under different headings according to their purpose and form of use. Some of these topics are explained below;

Session cookies: They are temporary cookies, they are deleted when you close your browser, so they are not permanent. They are used for purposes such as ensuring the security and continuity of our sites and your visit.

Persistent cookies: They are kept in subfolders of your browser, either with your action or until the time interval within the cookie expires. These cookies help our website remember your information and choices the next time you visit.

First and third party cookies: First party cookies are cookies used by our site. Third party cookies are cookies installed on your computer other than our site.

Mandatory cookies: These are anonymous cookies that are set up in order for the <https://www.bstbetonstar.com/> website to function properly and to present its features properly.

Functional and analytical cookies: Functional cookies are used to remember your preferences and improve your browsing experience, and analytical cookies are used to see which of our pages attract more attention, which resources are viewed more, and to provide services suitable for this traffic by seeing the traffic on our site. Cookies of this nature are also anonymous.

BST Betonstar Spare Parts Machinery Industry. ve Tic. A.Ş. uses session cookies, mandatory cookies, persistent cookies, and functional and analytical cookies on its website or mobile web.

Other than the mandatory and first party cookies used by our sites, the cookies used are:

Google: Google cookies can be used for many purposes. For example, it uses it to remember your safe search preferences, show you more relevant ads, determine how many visitors come to a page, help you use and sign up for services offered by Google, protect your data, or remember your ad settings.

Google Analytics: It is a web analysis tool that analyzes how users use the website. In addition to anonymous information, personal data about your use of the website (name, address, e-mail address, IP address) are sent to Google by your browser and processed by Google.

The user can remove persistent cookies and reject both session cookies and persistent cookies by following the instructions given in the "help" file of their internet browser or by visiting "www.allaboutcookies.org" or "www.youronlinechoices.eu". If the user refuses permanent cookies or session cookies, they can continue to use the said website or mobile web, but they may not be able to access all functions of the said channels or their access may be limited.
